

Manuscript submission check-list

Dear author, thanks for considering the Pan African Medical Journal for your submission.

The PAMJ Manuscript Submission System is optimized for Internet Explorer 5 and above. Compatibility with other browsers is not guaranteed and is currently under development. So we strongly advise that you use IE to submit your manuscript. Submissions through the Manuscript Submission System (MSS) are encouraged, however, if you have a slow or unstable internet connection, submit your manuscript by email to submission@panafrican-med-journal.com, either as separated documents or grouped in a zipped folder. Please read carefully before you proceed to manuscript submission. Review the journal instructions for authors if necessary. Review the points of the check list before you proceed to manuscript subscription. If you have additional question about this process, contact the editorial at editor@panafrican-med-journal.com.

1. E-mail addresses

Have the list of e-mail addresses for all the co-authors ready. You will need to provide these so that we can inform the co-authors when the manuscript has been received and when it is published.

2. Instructions for Authors and peer review policy

Read detailed Instructions for Authors for the journal and the peer review policy. Download the journal Pan African Medical Journal peer review process

3. Covering letter

Have the covering letter for your submission ready, explaining why we should publish your manuscript and elaborating on any issues relating to our editorial policies detailed in the instructions for authors.

4. Manuscript files

Have all the files for the manuscript in an acceptable format ready.

Manuscripts not formatted according to the Pamj style will be returned to the authors. For all research papers, make sure your manuscript includes the following sections: Background, Method, Results, Discussion, Conclusion, List of tables and Figures, Conflicts of interests, Authors' contribution, Acknowledgment (if any) and References. Pay special attention to citations in the manuscript. Pamj citation format is [1], [1-2], [X1,X2....] and NOT X1, X3, or anything else. Manuscript not following these basic formatting rules will be returned illico presto.

Main manuscript

- Formats: Microsoft Word (Version 4.0 and above).
- Tables: Any table should be able to old on a single page and should be included at the end of the manuscript. Download sample of correctly formatted tables (Microsoft Word 2002-2003, *.DOC): Table 1, Table 2.

Download PAMJ manuscript template here

- Figure files

Formats: PNG, JPEG only. MUST BE SUBMITTED AS SEPARATE FILES, not embedded in the main manuscript. Submit the best quality possible Files must be named with the three letter file extension appropriate to the file type (eg: .jpeg, .png). You will be asked to provide figure labels during the submission process. (The label is the small comment that usually goes with the

5. Are you one of the authors of this article?

If not, you cannot submit the article on behalf of someone else. The submitting author takes responsibility for the article during submission and peer review.

7. Authors contribution and agreement

Do you confirm that all the authors of the manuscript have read and agreed to its content, that readily reproducible materials described in the manuscript will be freely available to any scientist wishing to use them for non-commercial purposes.

8. Ethical approval

Do you confirm that you have ethical approval for any human or animal experimentation (for more information see Instructions for Authors)? Do you confirm that the manuscript is original, has not already been published in a journal and is not currently under consideration by another journal?

Manuscript not in compliance with the all of the above will simply be returned to the corresponding author. By clicking the button below, you are confirming these points and agreeing to these and all other terms of the Pan African Medical Journal Copyright and License Agreement, which we suggest you read.
